- If your child requires disability-related accommodations in order to participate in Energy Express, please contact Jill Hess, ADA Coordinator, WVU Division of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, at 304-293-5600.
- A copy of your child's Individualized Education Plan, Section 504 or other appropriate documentation is required to determine reasonable accommodations.
- Personal attendant services are not provided by Energy Express, but the use of a personal attendant will be authorized to ensure the full participation of your child, if needed. A personal attendant may be necessary in some instances, such as to provide toileting needs, GI tube feeding, injectable medications or if your child requires 1-to-1 behavioral supervision. Contact Jill Hess for additional information.

*All accommodation requests should be made as far in advance as possible, as the accommodation process may take time to complete.
